

It is important to the overall freedom of this country that the impunity of the airwaves remain free to all. All information must remain open and available to all who subscribe or tune into all methods of reporting. If this is stopped by the powerful the downhill fall will jeopardize all freedoms this country holds so dear.